Circus Counting and Matching

Count the number of objects in the box on the left. Circle the same number of objects in the box on the right.
This is a sample answer key, children may circle any of the objects in the right hand box as long as they circle the correct number of objects.