

Halloween Sentences

Read each sentence. Circle telling if it is a telling sentence. Circle question if it is a question.

- 1. We picked a giant pumpkin when we visited the farm.                      telling      question
- 2. Did you carve a jack-o-lantern for Halloween?                                      telling      question
- 3. Will there be a full moon tonight?                                                      telling      question

- 4. I am wearing a costume to the party.                                                      telling      question
- 5. Do you think I should bring a sweater?                                                      telling      question
- 6. Will we get to bob for apples?                                                              telling      question
- 7. I helped make the magic potion punch.                                                      telling      question

- 8. Did you put the punch in the black cauldron?                                                      telling      question
- 9. Did you help make the decorations?                                                              telling      question
- 10. There will be ghouls and monsters everywhere.                                                      telling      question

Write a telling sentence and a question using the following words. Remember to capitalize and use the correct punctuation.

haunted, old, the, is, house

The old house is haunted. (telling)
 Is the old house haunted? (question)

Halloween Sentences

Read each sentence. Circle telling if it is a telling sentence. Circle question if it is a question.

1. We picked a giant pumpkin when we visited the farm. telling question

2. Did you carve a jack-o-lantern for Halloween? telling question

3. Will there be a full moon tonight? telling question

4. I am wearing a costume to the party. telling question

5. Do you think I should bring a sweater? telling question

6. Will we get to bob for apples? telling question

7. I helped make the magic potion punch. telling question

8. Did you put the punch in the black cauldron? telling question

9. Did you help make the decorations? telling question

10. There will be ghouls and monsters everywhere. telling question

Write a telling sentence and a question using the following words. Remember to capitalize and use the correct punctuation.

haunted, old, the, is, house

The old house is haunted. (telling)

Is the old house haunted? (question)