

The Pinta

Christopher Columbus sailed from Palos, Spain, on August 3, 1492. His three ships, the Pinta, the Nina and the Santa Maria, carried 90 men. The Pinta carried 26 men and about one year's worth of food including biscuits, dried fish, salt pork, peas, live pigs, hens, almonds, beans, figs and cheese. On, October 12, 1492, the lookout on the Pinta sighted land. Columbus called this land San Salvador.
