

Communities

There are different types of communities. The people in your family make up your family community. The people in your neighborhood make up your neighborhood community. Everyone in your city forms your local community. In a community, people must learn to work and live together.

Answer each question with a T for true or an F for false.

1. Your neighborhood community is made up of people from another state. _____
2. Your local community is made up of people in your city or town. _____
3. It is important to participate in the functions of your community. _____
4. In a community people have nothing in common with each other. _____
5. Communities can be improved by people working together. _____
6. You do not have to work with other people in your community. _____

Read each clue and identify each community helper.

1. I help people learn to do many things. I am a _____.
2. I am always there when things get hot. I am a _____.
3. I can help you find a book or film. I am a _____.
4. I deliver things to you and your friends. I am a _____.
5. I help you keep your car running smoothly. I am a _____.
6. I help you stay healthy. I am a _____.
7. I help you cross busy streets safely. I am a _____.
8. I can drive you where you want to go. I am a _____.

Name two things you could do today to improve your community.

1. _____
2. _____

Communities

There are different types of communities. The people in your family make up your family community. The people in your neighborhood make up your neighborhood community. Everyone in your city forms your local community. In a community, people must learn to work and live together.

Answer each question with a T for true or an F for false.

1. Your neighborhood community is made up of people from another state. F
2. Your local community is made up of people in your city or town. T
3. It is important to participate in the functions of your community. T
4. In a community people have nothing in common with each other. F
5. Communities can be improved by people working together. T
6. You do not have to work with other people in your community. F

Read each clue and identify each community helper.

1. I help people learn to do many things. I am a teacher.
2. I am always there when things get hot. I am a fire fighter.
3. I can help you find a book or film. I am a librarian.
4. I deliver things to you and your friends. I am a mail carrier.
5. I help you keep your car running smoothly. I am a mechanic.
6. I help you stay healthy. I am a doctor.
7. I help you cross busy streets safely. I am a policeman or crossing guard.
8. I can drive you where you want to go. I am a bus or cab driver.

Name two things you could do today to improve your community.

1. _____
2. _____