

Homophones

Worksheet 1

Complete the following sentences by writing the correct homophone on the line.

1. Jill and Julie _____ chocolate chip cookies.
(made, maid)
2. _____ going to enter the cookies in a contest.
(Their, They're)
3. It took the judges over an _____ to pick the best cookie.
(hour, our)
4. The girls _____ a blue ribbon for their cookies.
(one, won)
5. I asked Jill to _____ down the recipe for me.
(right, write)
6. We _____ some delicious cookies today!
(ate, eight)
7. The _____ friends are in the school play.
(for, four)
8. They practice their lines together every _____.
(knight, night)
9. None of them has ever _____ a rehearsal.
(mist, missed)
10. I will _____ tickets to the play.
(cell, sell)
11. I'm sure the play will receive lots of _____.
(praise, preys)

Homophones

Worksheet 1

Complete the following sentences by writing the correct homophone on the line.

1. Jill and Julie made chocolate chip cookies.
(made, maid)
2. They're going to enter the cookies in a contest.
(Their, They're)
3. It took the judges over an hour to pick the best cookie.
(hour, our)
4. The girls won a blue ribbon for their cookies.
(one, won)
5. I asked Jill to write down the recipe for me.
(right, write)
6. We ate some delicious cookies today!
(ate, eight)
7. The four friends are in the school play.
(for, four)
8. They practice their lines together every night.
(knight, night)
9. None of them has ever missed a rehearsal.
(mist, missed)
10. I will sell tickets to the play.
(cell, sell)
11. I'm sure the play will receive lots of praise.
(praise, preys)

